

Seventh Grade
Practice Prompt Three

"Every now and then, an event which teaches us something new or surprising about ourselves will occur. Tell about a time when you found out something good or bad about yourself that you had not known. Tell what happened and how it changed you."