

Personification

What object will I give human characteristics? _____

How does the object look  like a person?

How does the object speak  like a person?

How does the object move/act  like a person?

Other things a person does or has?

How does my object portray these human characteristics?

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

© 2008 Northern Nevada Writing Project and WritingFix.

Teachers have permission to reprint for classroom use only.

Visit <http://nnwp.org> for information on obtaining a copy of the complete Going Deep with Comparison & Contrast Thinking Guide

Personification

From the classroom of Matt Golish

What object will I give human characteristics? Oak Tree Leaf

How does the object look  like a person? The oak leaf seemed to have two arms sticking out straight and two legs together.

How does the object speak  like a person? The oak leaf sang a sweet song of life.

How does the object move/act  like a person? The oak leaf danced in the breeze.

Other things a person does or has?

How does my object portray these human characteristics?

Emotions

The oak leaf took on a sorrowful attire as the season of fall progressed.

Thoughts

The oak leaf knew that its death would create new life.

Likes

The oak leaf loved when the wind would jostle it around.

Dislikes

The oak leaf hated acorns; they were too talkative.

Dreams

The oak leaf had a dream to ride the wind around the world.

© 2008 Northern Nevada Writing Project and WritingFix.

Teachers have permission to reprint for classroom use only.

Visit <http://nnwp.org> for information on obtaining a copy of the complete Going Deep with Comparison & Contrast Thinking Guide