

An original piece of student writing inspired by one of WritingFix's Digital Photo Prompts

photo taken by teacher, Amie Newberry

Along the Sea Shore

a haiku by Isabella, fourth grade writer

Sand beneath our feet,
We walk along the sea shore,
Enjoying the view.

What do you like about Isabella's writing style? Which writing trait(s) does she excel with?

What story or poem might you write inspired by this photograph?

Can you compose two or three haikus about this picture in the space below?