Set Me Free

a poem by Logan, 5th grade writer

I bark & bark, but they don't hear me.
They look but they don't care.
Please somebody set me free,
Take this chain off me.

As I sleep, I dream of getting free.
As I eat, they stare & stare.
Come please, come & set me free.
Why don't they care?
I dig & dig at the fence, but they just cover it & laugh.
They taunt me with food & eat it themselves.
Somebody take this chain off please,

Set me free.

Somebody climbs the fence & comes to me.
I wag my tail, they start to laugh, & I look at them funny.
Then they take my chain off. I run & jump.
I'm so happy
They set me free.
