

Second Graders respond to My Many Colored Days by Dr. Seuss
(inspired by a lesson found on-line at <http://WritingFix.com>)

On black scary days,
I feel freaky
Like a bat squeaking for his prey.

by Casey

On blue days,
I am feeling sad
Like a fish who no one likes.

On rainbow days,
I am feeling dizzy
Like somebody out of control.

by Michael

On quiet brown days,
I'm hibernating like a bear in Winter in his cave.

On cold blue days,
I'm cold like a polar bear.
